

A young man in a Hargrave Military Academy uniform is playing a sword as a bugle. He is wearing a white cap with a gold emblem, a grey jacket with gold stripes on the sleeves, and a white sash. He has several medals on his chest and a gold bell around his neck. Other cadets in similar uniforms are visible in the background.

MOVING THE MISSION FORWARD 2009 President's Report on Donor Giving

Donation Period From
June 1 2008 to May 31, 2009
Prepared by Susan Lambert

★

"The 2008-2009 giving year will be remembered as a time of great economic hardship for our country and a time of great support for Hargrave Cadets. Facing one of the most critical economic downturns within the last 50 years, Hargrave donors were unwavering in their support of the Academy, its mission and the Cadets it serves."

"On behalf of Hargrave, the faculty, the staff and our Cadets, I give you our 'Thanks' for helping us maintain the mission, the quality and level of educational service in need by our young men and expected by their families."

"Thank you for your continued support of Hargrave Military Academy and its Cadets."

Dr. Wheeler Baker, Col. USMC (ret.)
President, Hargrave Military Academy

HERITAGE SOCIETY

Hargrave's founders knew that excellence in education served as the springboard to leadership. In keeping with this tradition, Hargrave established the Heritage Society to secure the Academy's future through Planned Giving. Planned gifts provide an excellent way to maximize benefits for both the donor and the Academy.

By giving through assets, the following individuals exemplify the truest measure of loyalty by providing the "ultimate" gift.
